FRANKLAND RIVER

Alkoomi

2016
Icon Wandoo Semillon

AROMA

Lemon curd, cut hay and hints of vanilla bean.

PALATE

Intense lemon curd and toasty savoury spice with marmalade hints. Pithy texture and bright, flinty acidity.

VINIFICATION

Single block fruit from 1987 plantings. Free run juice is fermented in 50% French oak barrels and 50% stainless steel tanks. The juice then spends 5 months on lees and the unfined components are blended before bottling.

VINTAGE

A mild and dry Winter was followed by ample rain in Spring. We then experienced a warm, even Summer with timely rainfall throughout.

WINEMAKER'S COMMENT

We believe wine is about celebration and sharing. Our collection of wines are made to suit all occasions, bring people together, build a sense of community, and create conversation and lasting memories.
It is our passion and mission to continue the Alkoomi tradition and legacy of making authentic and delicious wines that reflect the pristine Frankland River region.
