Chambers Rosewood

2004
OLD CELLAR VINTAGE PORT

APPEARANCE
Deep, dark red in colour with slight brick tints in the rim.

AROMA
Fresh, rich layers of fruit are complemented by subtle oak and spirit. You can find aromas and flavours of plum, blackberry compote, chocolate, liquorice, nutmeg, soft cedar, Earl Grey tea and dried herbs.

PALATE
Elegantly structured with rich, savoury fruit flavours and an accent of sweet fruit notes on the palate. Supple and fine mouth-coating tannins support the long fruit flavours. Slight warmth of spirit appearing late in the finish.

WINEMAKER'S COMMENT
The Chambers family acknowledge their history and heritage and strives to uphold the age-old winemaking processes, whilst protecting the rich, fertile soil which they are privileged to sit upon. They use a perfect blend of traditional and modern methods of wine production, respecting and balancing nature and biodiversity.
