2025 FIVE TALES SAUVIGNON BLANC SEMILLON

APPEARANCE

Pale straw with a light green hue.

AROMA

Elevated aromas of citrus blossom, green mango and citrus zest.

PALATE

A lovely combination of bright fresh acidity, supple textural phenolics from the addition of Semillon and intensity of flavour creates a beautifully balanced wine from a classic vintage. Citrus and tropical notes flow from the nose and are expressed beautifully, a fresh lingering finish.

RANGE

Five Tales is the name of the ongoing story of the Credaro Family Estate. It's all about One Family that traces its history through Two Countries, and the legacy that was started by Three Italians, Olympio, Cesaré and Maria. Now the family is in its Fourth Generation and tends to Five Vineyards in WA's south-west. The story is still unfolding.
